DDC ORGANIZES BOURSE PAVILION
AT THE DIAMOND SHOW-BASEL

Diamond Dealers Club President Reuven Kaufman announced that a delegation of some of the Bourse's prominent members will exhibit at The Diamond Show-Basel, 2014.

Kaufman indicated that participation in the prestigious destination show was part of a comprehensive strategy to encourage members to pursue trade opportunities in shows throughout the world. Participation in Basel, which as a trading hub for our industry plays a crucial role in the diamond business, is the latest manifestation of this initiative and follows DDC organized trade delegations in such venues as Hong Kong, Dubai and Israel.

Mr. Kaufman said that Club members were unanimously enthusiastic about the DDC opening new trade opportunities for them to showcase their companies. He also noted that DDC leadership was involved in planning for new trade initiatives in other countries.

Mr. Kaufman encouraged attendees at The Diamond Show-Basel, who represent buyers from throughout the world, to visit the DDC Pavilion. He expressed confidence that "Visitors to the DDC Pavilion will be impressed at the unusually wide range of goods available to them at extremely competitive prices."

DDC companies in The Diamond Show-Basel, organized by the Rapaport Group, are many of our industry's leading diamond dealers, including Baguette Diam, Inc., Chester International LLC, East Continental Gems, Inc., Edelstein Diamonds, Elie Brilliant Gems, Inc., Five C's, Inc., Jack Reiss LLC, Kahiri Diamonds, Luster Gems N.Y., Inc., Philip Lazarus Diamonds, Reuven Kaufman, Inc., Richdiam, Inc., Rick Shatz, Inc., S.B. Diamond Corp. and Simplex Diam, Inc.
